A Spotter Guide to Truro Cathedral

Tick the box when you have seen each of my favourite things!

Candles
People often light candles when they say a prayer for someone

A Chaplain
Chaplains say hourly prayers and help people

The Lectern
Where we read the Bible, which is our Holy Book

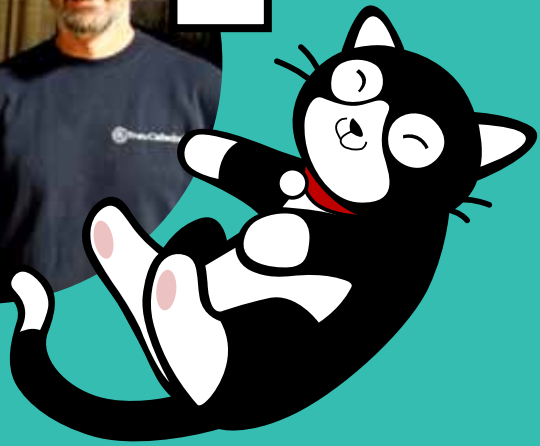

The Font
Where people are Christened and join our Christian family

This Cathedral belongs to all of us!

Vergers
Vergers look after the Cathedral and are usually very busy!

Can you see the dragon on the lectern?

The Pulpit
From where the Canons teach us

Artwork by Keith Sparrow

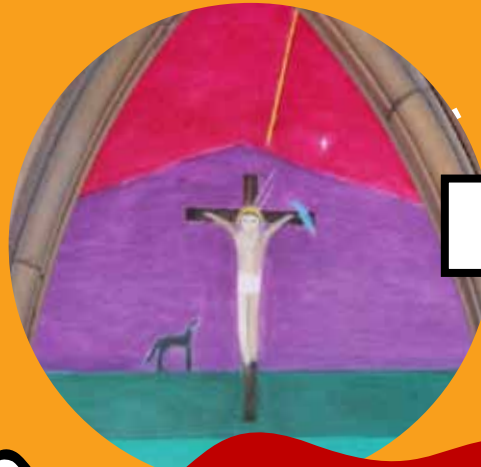

The Cathedra
This is the chair where Bishop Tim sits

The Organ
Where we play music to worship God

Jesus on the Cross
A painting by the artist Craigie Aitchison

A Cathedral is a place where Christians come together to Worship God

Cathedral Model
Made from lots and lots of matchsticks!

Can you guess how many matchsticks it took to make that?

The Holy Dove Rose Window
Made with brightly coloured glass

The High Altar
Where we share bread and wine to remember Jesus
