

Welcome...

...to our packed programme of organ recitals for 2017. Come and hear why so many people regard Truro's Father Willis organ as one of the finest cathedral instruments there is. Our recital series is one of the most extensive in the UK and there is music to suit all ages and all tastes.

Evening Concert by Nathan Laube

International Concert Organist

Tuesday 23rd May at 7.30pm

A star among young classical musicians, concert organist Nathan Laube has quickly earned a place among the organ world's elite performers. In addition to his busy performing schedule, Mr. Laube serves as Assistant Professor of Organ at The Eastman School of Music in Rochester, New York, where he teaches with distinguished professors David Higgs and Edoardo Bellotti. He has become particularly well known for his colourful and virtuosic transcriptions of orchestral works by Liszt, Mendelssohn, Mahler, Rossini and Strauss.

Tickets £10 (Students £7, U18s free) on the door.

Farewell Recital by Luke Bond

Truro Cathedral

Friday 31st March at 1.10pm

Luke Bond has been our Assistant Director of Music since 2008 and has dazzled us with his wonderful musicianship on the Father Willis Organ. He will leave us at Easter for a new job as Assistant Director of Music at St George's Chapel, Windsor. This recital will be one of the last occasions on which you can enjoy his playing and wish him well before he moves up to Windsor.

Free with retiring collection
